Good Afternoon Mr. Hothi-

I hope this email finds you and your family in good health during these trying times. I'm writing today to propose a conference call with EPA (myself, Brooks Stanfield, and Jeff Fowlow), to discuss a settlement offer with Spokane Recycling and the two cleanup options we are currently considering. The three of us are available at the following times: Thursday, April 2, 1-3pm; Monday, April 6, 10am-12pm; Tuesday, April 7, 1:30-3:30pm.

I know you and Mrs. Hothi had stated a preference to meet in person, however that will obviously not be possible in the current situation. I'm hopeful we can proceed with conference calls for now. Please let me know which of those times you prefer, and I will send you the conference call information. If none of those times work for you, please propose an alternative time and date.

Sincerely,

Kris
